A man with a beard and glasses, wearing a dark suit and a white shirt, is walking on a sidewalk. He is pulling a black rolling suitcase with his right hand and has a white bag slung over his shoulder. He is walking towards the right side of the frame. In the background, there is a modern building with large glass windows that reflect the surrounding environment. To the left of the man, there is a large, leafy green bush. The overall scene is brightly lit, suggesting it is daytime.
